

HCOA Gallery Exhibit Contract - Diffability Show

Artist name: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Title of exhibit: Diffability Show

Hang date: Wednesday, March 4, 2020

Removal date: Saturday, March 28, 2020

Opening reception: Friday, March 6, 2020

Works shown must be for sale. You may submit as many works as you like but the curators may choose not to exhibit some due to space limitations and to make sure everyone can be included. Proceeds from each sale will be split 3 ways between the Artist, Homer Council on the Arts, and TRAILS (through the Independent Living Center). You may either set a fixed sale price or set a starting bid amount to include your piece in the silent auction.

Please deliver works ready to hang with hardware attached by 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 4th and plan to join us for the First Friday opening reception from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, March 6th! For more information, contact Devony at TRAILS: 235-7911 or dlehner@peninsulailc.org, and HCOA: 235-4288 or office@homerart.org

Signatures

By signing this contract, you agree that you have read the agreement in its entirety, and that you understand and agree to the following:

- You will fulfill all Artist Responsibilities listed above.
- Your work will be considered on temporary loan to HCOA from date of delivery until you remove the work from HCOA.
- You will not hold HCOA responsible, as an organization, for any damage or theft due to burglary, vandalism, fire, or "acts of God." If a piece of artwork is broken or damaged by a visitor or HCOA staff, every effort will be made to collect from the person who caused damage, but HCOA is not responsible for reimbursement for these costs. HCOA strongly encourages collectors to include artwork consigned to the HCOA on his/her homeowner's insurance policy in the event of theft, fire or some other catastrophic event.
